NAACP NEWS

Bobby Bivens
President – Stockton Branch NAACP

D'Adrea Davie
Chair, Press and Publicity Committee

IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: January 17, 2015

NAACP STOCKTON BRANCH
ANNUAL RELIGIOUS PRAYER BREAKFAST

The Stockton Branch of the National Association For The Advancement Of Colored People Proudly Presents their Annual Religious Prayer Breakfast on Saturday, March 14, 2015 at the Robert Cabral Agricultural Center, 2101 E. Earhart Ave. in Stockton at 7:30 am. Local pastors, officers and members of NAACP and concerned citizens of the San Joaquin County offer glimpses into their daily expressions of faith through testimony, prayer, praise and worship.

The purpose of this Prayer Breakfast is to promote prosperity and good health throughout the community and encourage local congregations to be involved with the NAACP, the oldest civil rights organization in the United States. The Stockton NAACP Branch will also recognize key members in the community for their hard work and dedication to the civil rights movement. Potential members will also enjoy a short program highlighting accomplishments of the Stockton Branch of the NAACP and Citywide prayer for our city, state, and country.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) is celebrating its 106th Anniversary. Its half-million adult and youth members throughout the United States and the world are front line advocates for civil rights, social justice and equal opportunity under law. Please come in prayer with us for our community to continue in making a difference within the community. The cost of the prayer breakfast ticket for individuals is $25.00 per adult and $10.00 per youth. Organizations can purchase tickets for a table 8 at $200.00 or a table of 8 with a full page AD in our Program Book at $240.00.

For more information about this program or future NAACP activities contact (209) 466-7000 and visit our website at www.StocktonNAACP.org. We look forward to seeing you at the prayer breakfast.

###

401 N. San Joaquin Street   Stockton, CA 95202