

NAACP NEWS

www.stocktonnaacp.org

Bobby Bivens
President – Stockton Branch NAACP

D'Adrea Davie
Chair, Press and Publicity Committee

IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: February 3, 2015

NAACP STOCKTON BRANCH YOUTH SUMMIT

The Stockton Branch of the National Association For The Advancement Of Colored People Proudly Presents their Annual Youth Summit on Saturday, February 28, 2015 from 9:00 am to 4:00 pm on the beautiful campus of San Joaquin Delta College. The summit's theme is Reach Higher...Achieve Your Goals. This daylong event is targeted to serve 300 middle and high school youth and their adult chaperones within the San Joaquin County. Participants can RSVP at www.2015YouthSummit.eventbrite.com.

The NAACP Stockton Youth Summit brings youth, parents, community leaders, school districts, Superintendents, and organizations together to engage in workshops set to empower the youth to make the best choices for their lives. Workshops subjects are youth gang violence, self-awareness, planning and paying for college. Participants learn strategies and methods to implement positive, productive activities in their schools and communities.

The NAACP Stockton Youth Summit will begin with a general session including a Panel discussion about 'Our Lives Matter' with Youth Leaders in NAACP, High School & College Students, and the Stockton Police Department in the Atherton Auditorium. Raffle Prizes (i.e. Electronic Tablet, games, etc...) will be given to engaged youth! For more information about this program or future NAACP activities contact (209) 466-7000 and visit our website at www.StocktonNAACP.org.

The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) is celebrating its 106th Anniversary. Its half-million adult and youth members throughout the United States and the world are front line advocates for civil rights, social justice and equal opportunity under law.

###